As Harford County Executive,

Billy Boniface will . . .

Fight for Our Rural Heritage!

Billy Boniface

Harford County Executive 2022

With over 30 years of experience as a Partner and Division Manager of his family's farming operation, Billy Boniface understands the sacrifices made by our farmers and the importance of protecting our rural heritage. His family's Bonita Farm in Darlington is permanently preserved.

Billy's Record for Agriculture:

- During his time as Council President and later as the county's administrator, Harford County surpassed 60,000 acres of permanently preserved farmland, allowing farms to reinvest into their operations and making land affordable for the next generation of farmers
- Distributed over $2 million in grants to agri-businesses
- Passed legislation to increase the property tax credit on preserved farmland by over 40%
- Served on the committee that designed the Ag and Natural Resources Magnet Program at North Harford High
- Longtime volunteer and supporter of 4-H
- Former Member of the Maryland Ag Land Preservation Foundation Board and two-term President of the Maryland Horse Breeders Association
- Appointed Chairman of the Maryland Young Farmers Advisory Board by Gov. Bob Ehrlich
